

Press Release

Issued December 1 2007 for Immediate Release

Dress your little ones with something special

Charming new range of pyjamas and dresses from Minty Hen

If you're looking for something special for a little girl, you'll love this new range of hand embroidered clothing. Perfect from six months to three years, each style is full of charming touches.

With smocking, embroidered rosebuds and sweet pastel colours, each item in the range will please anyone who likes little girls to look like little girls. The classic styles are made from 100 per cent cotton, perfect for hot summers and holiday time. Simply slip on a soft pink cardigan for a party dress for any time of year.

And if you want something for a little boy, choose the pale blue pyjamas with friendly bears on the pockets. He'll fall asleep with a smile, just like the bears.

Pyjamas and dresses wholesale from £12.00- 15.00. More new styles will be arriving shortly. Email or visit (wholesale contact details or web address)

3. MintyHen is the UK distributor for Pockets of Learning toys, Lullaby Lavender baby skincare and Cute Cotton clothes. It was founded by Antonia Roskill, who says, "My daughter was sent a Pockets of Learning toy for Christmas. She loved it, and I loved it. We looked for more, and couldn't find them being sold in the UK. I started looking into how I could get hold of some to give as gifts. I contacted the manufacturer and discovered they weren't sold in the UK, so I put a proposal to them that I become the UK distributor. I now offer a range of hard to find high quality products fro children" MintyHen is named after Antonia's children, Araminta and Henry.
